REIB Operating Conditions Remain Differentiated

Portfolio positioning and asset quality continue to anchor performance across markets

Singapore

- Retail demand firm; prime malls seeing steady leasing and trading
- Office market tight, with limited vacancy supporting rents
- Strong capital markets interest in Singapore continues

China

- Uneven demand recovery across asset types
- Competitive leasing environment continues to pressure rents
- Focus on occupancy and cash flow resilience

India

- Office and business park demand supported by GCCs and domestic corporates
- Grade A, well-located assets showing healthier absorption
- Structurally attractive market underpinned by long-term fundamentals

Other Markets

- Mixed leasing conditions across developed markets
- Rental outcomes vary by market, reflecting local supply-demand dynamics
- Portfolio performance supported by asset quality and diversification

Navigating a Dynamic Environment with Discipline and Focus

- Uncertain market conditions expected to moderate the pace of capital raising and deployment, with continued focus on risk-adjusted returns
- Potential inflation-driven cost pressures may weigh on asset operations, reinforcing ongoing portfolio optimisation and cost discipline
- Continued focus on high-conviction themes – Lodging & Living, Logistics & Self-Storage, Real Estate Credit – in resilient markets including Singapore, Japan and Australia continue to attract institutional capital and provide stability
- CLI's strong balance sheet and capital position provide flexibility to pursue strategic and accretive opportunities
